Why live on campus?

The residence halls provide a safe, convenient home-away-from-home, and a low-stress environment that encourages students academically, socially, and personally.

A helping hand can always be found from the staff such as resident advisors (RAs), who are experienced students who know what coming to college is really like. Every hall also has a full-time resource person, the residence coordinator (RC), who is available to students.

What is there to do? The halls provide a wide variety of programs and events — hundreds every year, in fact. From academic help to intramural sports teams to social activities, there's always something happening in the halls and throughout campus, where getting there is just a quick stroll.

The highlight of the halls is the wide variety of people to meet and friends to make. Some of these relationships will last a lifetime. The halls provide a great opportunity to share with others the common experience of being in college while learning about each other's varied backgrounds and interests.

第 7 步询问学生是否有兴趣参加我们的某些特殊的校园生活和学习社团。有的社团可能不能申请，保留空白即可。

Special Interest Living

(Step 7 of 18)

Residence halls are home to several special-interest options. While all residence hall living is intended and designed to promote student learning and academic success, these options offer particular advantages in connecting students' classroom experiences to their daily in-hall experiences.

Imagine having your classmates down the hall: how easy is that to arrange study groups? Wouldn't it be great to live with peers who have a similar interest that you have? Themed housing gives you that option.

Please refer to the list below for a full picture of available options. If you find options that interest you, rank them via your preferences in the next step of the application.

Meal Plan

(Step 9 of 18)

Simplify your life! Meal plans come in many convenient shapes and sizes. A magnetic strip on the back of your Bearcat Card works with our computer system to identify you as having a meal plan. By combining a Meal Allowance with Bearcat Card Dollars, you can find a plan that's right for you.

Meals on the plan maybe be used at MarketPointe@Siddall and CenterCourt, and StadiumView Cafe Dining Centers.

Bearcat Card (BC) dollar amounts are added to the student's ID as part of the meal plan. The BC dollars may be spent at any on-campus food location (including the Dining Centers) as well as any off-campus location participating in the BC program. BC dollars carry over from one semester to the next, and a refund of any unspent BC dollars is available upon request at the end of spring semester or upon leaving UC.

About the Plans

Unlimited Plan

This plan offers the greatest amount of flexibility and value. Unlimited dine-in swipes for the owner of the plan, 15 guest meals per semester, and $150 Bearcat Dollars per semester. This plan also allows one "to go" meal from Stadium View Cafe per meal period.
